

September Crown 2022 Site Handout
Changes & Additions
Thursday, September 1, 2022

For the latest updates we have a QR code and a short link available. Use either one.

The short link is: <https://bit.ly/septcrown2022>

HERALD'S MEETING CORRECTION

The 8:00 am 'Tournament Heralds Meeting' is the correct meeting. Ignore any others listed. If you are a herald, please plan on being at the Herald's pavilion on the Eric's at 8:00 am on Saturday.

SCRIBAL CLASSES AT SEPTEMBER CROWN (08/31/2022 Update)

Sable Sable Arnora Grimsdottir is holding an Open House on the SATURDAY of September Crown! Please drop by for painting opportunities: Kingdom charters, note cards and bookmarkers, instruction is available if needed. The Scribal day-shade will be adjacent to the Heralds' pavilion which will be on the Eric. Please bring your own chair and drink. Tables and most scribal supplies will be provided if you need them. There will be a Tools, Materials and Resources for New Scribes class Saturday at noon.

SUNDAY CLASSES

10 am Drawing and Painting Acanthus Leaves - instructor HL Jadwiga Randomyskova will be supplying handout and instruction. Students should bring pencils, erasers, inking pen/Michron, and paint or markers.

12 noon Uncial Calligraphy - instructor HE Taliesin ap Hafgan. Early period Majuscule hand used in Book of Kells. Instructor will provide supplies $5

2 pm Intentional Drawing - instructor Maitresse Alicia du Bois. Class helps improve your calligraphy skills. Instructor will provide supplies for $3 or bring .03-.05 Micron Pen, pencil, thick paper, calligraphy marker, pen

3 pm Painting Jewels - instructor Dame Tamlyn of Wyntersea, materials provided, but if you have paint brushes you like please bring them.

4 pm Known World Scribes Trading Cards Soiree - come join us and learn about Scribal/Artist trading cards in the SCA. Blanks are available to work on for trading

